

ILE CODE OF CONDUCT

I, as a participant in studying at The Spanish Language Institute (ILE), agree to abide by the following Code of Conduct. I will strive to represent myself as a Christ-following, understanding that I am His Ambassador to the World and therefore will bring glory and honor to Him. I will also strive to represent ILE in a similar manner and realize that my lifestyle is a reflection of the mission, vision, and core values of The Spanish Language Institute.

- 1. I will strive to honor Christ and represent ILE that reflects the mission, vision, and core values of The Spanish Language Institute.
- 2. I will not produce, use, distribute, sell, or keep in my possession any illegal drugs.
- 3. I will be prompt and attend all classes and scheduled meetings as required.
- 4. I will carry out to the best of my abilities, all academic assignments given to me.
- 5. I will abide by all the directives and instructions given to me by authorized program staff and representatives of ILE.
- 6. I will not lie, cheat, or steal and will conduct myself with the utmost integrity and ethical behavior while participating in this program.
- 7. I will do my best to get along with other participants and maintain a spirit of open-mindedness to their opinions as well as a spirit of forgiveness for perceived wrongs. I will work according to Scripture to resolve any issues and to live at peace with everyone.
- 8. I will express any grievances to ILE's Campus Pastor or Academic Director.

9. I will respect local customs and traditions, and not engage in any activities that bring disgrace or disrepute upon ILE, its program partners or representatives, or the Lord.
10. I have been given a copy of The Spanish Language Institute's Statement of Faith and I agree to abide by it, understanding that there is liberty within the body of Christ, and will do my best to honor my fellow brothers and sisters whose faith is different from mine.
11. Reflecting Christ also means displaying God's distinctive character in grateful response to Christ's costly redemption (1 Pet. 1:15-19). Holiness entails separation from the godless "world" system (1 John 2:15-17; Ezra 6:21) by discerning where one's culture reflects evil values. By living holy, separated lives, we publicly proclaim that only He is worth loving and following. One of the primary ways we pursue holiness is through moral purity. In calling us to purity, God forbids viewing sexuality as a means of exploiting others (1 Thess. 4:1-8). This means honoring God's design for sex, celebrating and practicing it only within the marriage relationship between one man and one woman for a lifetime. Since what we do springs from how we think (Mark 7:20-23), this commitment also means controlling what one allows him or herself to view and read (Matt. 5:27-30) and petitioning God's Spirit to purify one's thoughts, motives, and actions.
